

The Magic Tap.

Magic tap, which appears to float in the sky with an endless supply of water. In actuality, there is a pipe hidden in the stream of water.

Location: Aqualand, Cadiz.

The Oarsman.
Location: Knoxville,
Tennessee.

Copyright(c) 2008 Victor Spencer

The Thumb.
Location: Paris.

Melting cow.
Location: Budapest.

La Trobe.

A contemporary representation of Charles La Trobe in central Melbourne (This temporary installation was removed at the end of June 2006 and has been acquired by La Trobe University).
Location: Melbourne.

The Hanging Rhino.
Location: Potsdam.

Man at work.

This bronze statue is located in the pedestrian zone of Bratislava. Rub its nose, and you will have fortune. I am sure many people believe in that as have a look at the nose, it looks badly rubbed.

Location: Bratislava.

Madame Chapeau.

Designed to create a dynamics between two streets, this sculpture beams with its presence in the space that was allocated to the artist. The lady is fearlessly counting her money in an area of Brussels that is famous for its pickpockets.

Location: Brussels, Belgium.

De Vaartkapoen.

Low down, a young rebel, the Vaartkapoen, reminiscent of a jack-in-the-box, topples over a policeman higher up, thus overthrowing his authority.

Location: Brussels, Belgium.

Location: Prague.

Vigeland's Parken.
Location: Oslo, Norway.

Eating a Biscuit together.

Located in front of the Bukcheon Museum.

Sculptor is Ku Bom Ju.

Location: Seoul, Korea.

Los Angeles

A true to life art work in front of the Ernst & Young building.
Location: Los Angeles.

Location: Salt Lake City, Utah.

The Shark.

The Shark became the most famous resident of Headington when it landed in the roof of 2 New High Street (see map) on 9 August 1986. This ordinary home (built as a semi-detached house in about 1860 but now attached by a link to a second house to the north) suddenly became the centre of world attention, and the headless shark still excites interest today.

Location: 2 New High Street, Headington, Oxford.

Location: San Antonio, TX.

Location: Manhattan, USA.

Location: Stockholm, Sweden.

Location: Minsk, Belarus.

Knotted legs running.

Location: Kanazawa, Japan.

Location: Amsterdam, Holland.

Location: Singapore.

Broken Chair memorial.

Location: Switzerland.

Location: Dundee, Scotland.

Location:
Dundee, Scotland.

Location: Cape Town, South Africa.

Roosevelt Memorial in the National Mall area.
Location: Washington DC.

Giant hands.
Location: Como, Italy.

Minsk. Belarus.

The Tall Banker.

Location: Luxembourg.

Location: Nice, France.

World's Largest Basket Building.
Location: Newark Ohio.

Mirrored man face.

Location: Turin, Italy.

Location: Punta del Este, Uruguay.

Location: Berlin Germany.

Dromeas.

Location: Athens, Greece.

Location: Kansas City Public Library.

